Fan (Rich Young Ruler)

A transactional view of God blinds us to the depth of our sin, limits our perspective to earthly concerns, and leads to a motivation rooted in personal gain. This results in inconsistent commitment, selective obedience, and a life dependent on self and material possessions rather than on God.

- 2 View of Sin - _____ acknowledgment (1 John 1:9)

Changes our _____ to _____
- 5 Commitment - _____ (Colossians 3:23)
- 6 Obedience - _____ (John 14:15)
- 7 Dependence - On _____ Alone (Philippians 4:19)

Follower (Isaiah)

A transformational view of God reveals the depth of our sin and His holiness, shifting our perspective to eternal priorities. This fuels a motivation grounded in reverence and grace, leading to ALL IN commitment, complete obedience, and daily dependence on God as the source of our life and purpose.
